PLAN NEW CLASS FOR FARMERS

The opening Tuesday evening of a new course for farmers of the Gettysburg community in the repair, operation and construction of farm machinery was announced today by Elmer H. Schriver, vocational agriculture teacher at the Gettysburg high school, and instructor for a class of 35 farmers who last week completed a 20-week course in the same subject matter.

Mr. Schriver said the new course will be conducted for at least 12 weeks with classes to be held each Tuesday and Thursday evening. The classes will be held at the local high school building from 8 to 11 o'clock twice each week. The new course, which will cover exactly the same instruction that that presented to the class which finished last week, is being offered in response to a demand from farmers in this area who have to make used machinery serve another year — and wait until after the war for new equipment.

In the course just ended 18 farm implements were completely overhauled and painted and 289 other minor repair and construction jobs were handled.

The course, sponsored by the State department of Public Instruction and the local school board, is open to any interested farmer. There is no charge for the instruction. Pupils who bring in machines for repair are charged for the new parts needed.

BOWLING ALLEY OPERATOR FINED

Mrs. Maxine Stewart, Carlisle street, pleaded guilty this morning to a charge of keeping her bowling alley on York street open "on the Sabbath." She paid a fine of $5 and costs before Justice of the Peace John H. Basehore. Chief of Police Glenn Guise made the arrest.

Mrs. Stewart admitted to Justice Basehore that her establishment was open "about five minutes after midnight" Sunday morning but said she was closing the place. Chief Guise said the arrest was made when the bowling alley was found to be open "about 15 minutes after 12 o'clock Sunday morning."

Born August 1, 1879, in Adams county, a son of William and Rachel Wolf, he attended the Adams county schools and graduated from Gettysburg college in 1906. During his time in college he taught in the schools of Adams county and upon graduation he became a teacher at Hanover. Mr. and Mrs. Hess returned Friday evening from Massachusetts and said today their son is improving but is expected to be required to remain in the hospital for a period of from four to six weeks.

Hess enlisted in the Air Corps in August, 1942, and was called for duty in March, 1943. He graduated from Gettysburg high school in 1940.

TIGHTER DRAFT SITUATION SEEN HERE BY KNOUSE

The local selective service board is now "scraping the bottom," M. E. Knouse, chairman of the Gettysburg draft board, told the Adams County Fruit Growers' association Saturday afternoon at its annual all-day meeting at Biglerville.

Selective Service has been in continual change since its establishment, the draft board head told the fruit growers, and "has continued tightening up. It is now very tough. It is now scraping the bottom. In order to get the men the tightening process will continue until victory is in sight.

"The Army and the Navy figure on the worst possible disasters happening and call men enough to have replacements in case those disasters should happen. We must reconcile ourselves to the fact that that is the only way in which a war can be fought. We must reconcile ourselves to the fact that the armed forces will get their men no matter what the burden on farming or industry. If they are needed, the trained men must be ready in all fairness to the nation and the individuals.

Bigger Role for Women

"On the other hand production must be increased. We all may have to work longer and harder. Women will play a great deal greater part in farm and industrial production than they have so far. Russia shows what women can do. We are far from reaching that stage.

"No boy under 22 may be deferred except for agriculture except in special cases and in those cases the local boards cannot grant the deferments. They must be given only by the state board of appeals. Nor can a man any longer transfer to the farm after he had gotten into 1-A and expect to be deferred. Your request for a farm deferment for such a person will not be considered. Of course you have the right to appeal the decision of the Gettysburg board to the state appeals board, but I do not believe you will receive too much consideration.

No Loading Anywhere

"All farm deferments are now being reviewed every six months. If a man is loading on the job—he is in the Army. From now on there will be no loading anywhere. "Every man who is making a great contribution to the war effort (Please Turn to Page 2)

J. G. M'ILHENNY DIES SUDDENLY

James G. McIlhenney, 67, a veteran of the Spanish American war and a former clerk in the Gettysburg post office, was found dead Sunday morning at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dellinger, north of Hunters-town, where he had lived for a number of years.

Mr. McIlhenney, who had retired in usual health Saturday night, apparently was stricken while he was dressing Sunday morning. Dr. C. G. Crist, county coroner, signed a certificate attributing death to a heart attack. The body was found about 6 a. m. when the Dellingers called Mr. McIlhenney for breakfast.

The deceased was a native of Straban township and was the last survivor of the family of the late Jacob G. and Sarah Ann (Lott) McIlhenney. He resided in Straban township until moving to Gettysburg when he took a position as clerk in the local postoffice while his brother, the late William B. McIlhenney, a former sheriff, was postmaster. He also served under the late Charles S. Duncan.

ROBERT C. LOTT NEW PRESIDENT FOR FRUITMEN

Robert C. Lott, Aspers R. D., was elected president of the Fruit Growers' association of Adams county, at its annual all-day session held at Biglerville, Saturday. He succeeds Frederic E. Griest, Flora Dale, who completed two terms as president on Saturday.

Roy Heckenluber, Biglerville R. D., was named vice president and Ralph Tyson, Gardners, was selected as secretary-treasurer.

Fruit prices next year, what to do about old orchards in the county, spray schedules, the draft, and orchard management were among the matters discussed by the growers during the session.

"Have the Courage"

Top problem facing many growers is what to do with their orchards which have reached an age which has cut down their production to a great extent, the growers declared. J. U. Rief, extension pomologist from State College, outlined various methods of replacing the trees but could give the growers little hope of continuing in business with much production while replacing the trees.

M. E. Knouse, president of the Knouse corporation, Peach Glenn, told of experiments on several of his farms in replacing old orchards and other growers suggested plans that should be followed in the future in orchard management, but the consensus seemed to be that the only salvation lay "in having the courage to tear the trees out and starting over again." The result will be a decline in fruit production in Adams county for many years.

Renewing Orchards

"The soundest thing to do is to get rid of the old trees," Mr. Rief told the growers. "There are various methods of doing it, by blasting them out, pulling them out, pushing them over or sawing them off, but the end result is the same. "There are three methods of renewing the orchards. You may interplant by putting the young trees in the tree row or middle of the row, but in that case you must have the courage to pull out the old trees before the young ones get too old, or you will have misshapen, sick trees.

Planting Advice

"In some cases you will want to cut the trees down and work the ground for several years before replanting and the other method is to cut down the trees and replant immediately.

"Many of the county's trees are decreasing in yield; costs of producing and harvesting are going up because the trees are too big; worm population steps up in older orchards, and there are many trees producing worthless varieties of apples at the present time. We must have the courage to dig out the ones that are not producing.

"The method of replanting will depend much on the condition of the soil. Check what the trees did in the past. There are always some trees that made money, some that (Please Turn to Page 5)

Tottering Rabaul Is Shelled Again By U.S. Destroyers

Helsinki Is Afire After Red Bombing

Stockholm, Feb. 28 (AP) — Finnish refugees reaching Sweden painted a grim picture today of the damage wrought in Helsinki by a great fleet of Russian bombers which subjected the city Saturday night to the heaviest air attack it has ever undergone.

The refugees said the Soviet planes, estimated in a Finnish communiqué as 600, had laid waste vast sections of the capital and one estimated that fully 70 per cent of the buildings were destroyed or wrecked.

The University of Helsinki was reported almost entirely destroyed and the American, British and German legations were listed among the buildings damaged.

Fires broke out in many sections, the refugees said, and panic spread among the civilian population as the Russian raiders, striking in small groups, kept the attack going for almost 12 hours.

Some of the fires still were burning yesterday and transportation facilities were virtually paralyzed. No Sunday papers were published.

(A Bern dispatch, meanwhile, said Swedish press reports from Berlin quoted a German spokesman as saying that Germany has no intention of withdrawing her troops from Finland regardless of any steps Finland may take toward peace with Russia.)

COURT BUSINESS HERE SATURDAY

A decree in divorce was granted Kathryn Elizabeth Eckenrode, 151 York street, from Paul Preston Eckenrode, also of Gettysburg, by the Adams county court Saturday. Infidelity was charged.

An action in assumpsit was instituted by Georganna Groupe, Hanover, against Alvin E. Groupe, Straban township, in which she is seeking to secure $411.44 which she alleges she lent Mr. Groupe and claims was not returned. J. Francis Yake, Jr., is Mr. Groupe's attorney.

The court set March 13 at 10 a. m. as the time for Mary E. Altland, plaintiff in an action in assumpsit, to show cause why the action should not be stayed until such time as the son of the defendant, Melle Altland, is released from the armed services. Melle Altland in asking the action be stayed asserted that her son, Fred Altland, had handled all of her business matters and was now in the armed forces.

A libel in divorce was filed by John H. Wolf, Hanover R. D., against Geneva P. Wolf, Hanover R. D. Cruel and barbarous treatment and indignities are charged.

$400 Damage In Truck-Car Crash

About $400 damage was caused but no one was injured when a car and a truck sideswiped on the Hanover road a mile south of Abbotstown about 1 o'clock this morning. No charges have been filed by Private George J. Evanko of the Gettysburg office of the United States Employment service, said today.

"Important shipments of canned foods for the armed forces are being held up at the nearby processing plant because of a critical labor shortage," Mr. Crouse said. "This is an important emergency war job, and the men are needed at once."

"No experience is necessary," it was explained, "and the Musselman company will make every effort to accommodate individual requirements in the matter of working schedules, transportation and similar matters. The regular wage rate will be paid in these jobs, and while the emergency shipping bottleneck should be cleared up within a couple of months, the employer will be glad to have any worker who so desires continue on the job into the new processing season which begins at that time. Men interested in these jobs should apply immediately to the local USES office, 20 Baltimore street in Gettysburg or directly to the Musselman plant in Biglerville."

SELLS FRUIT FARM

Lester G. Scharfger has sold his 119-acre dairy and fruit farm in Franklin township along the Gettysburg-Mummaburg road to Clifford J. Hoblin, Long Island, New York. Possession will be given April 1. C. A. Heiges made the sale.

Allied Headquarters, Southwest Pacific, Feb. 28 (AP)—American destroyers, after giving Kavieng its worst bombardment of the war, turned their guns on tottering Rabaul Friday in coordination with a devastating 112-ton aerial bombing.

Gen. Douglas MacArthur said today the once-formidable New Britain fortress offered only sporadic return fire which was quickly silenced by our steady salvos which left towering columns of smoke.

For the sixth straight day not a single enemy plane rose to intercept the large escorted flight of Liberators and Mitchells which planted their bomb loads effectively and without loss despite anti-aircraft fire.

It was the second shelling of Rabaul from the sea in a week. On February 18 a destroyer force caused heavy damage to the airdromes and waterfront area.

Kavieng Given Heavy Shelling

The bombardment followed by a few hours the third and heaviest shelling of Kavieng, on the northern tip of New Ireland, by destroyers which poured thousands of rounds of five-inch shells into the town, harbor, ammunition dumps and storage areas, and raised havoc with shipping.

Unlike Rabaul, Kavieng appeared freshly reinforced and returned accurate and consistent fire which caused minor damage to two ships and injured seven men.

Bombers overhead reported two cargo ships were sunk in the port and others were struck fatally as they were getting underway. Ships attempting to escape sailed directly into the guns of other destroyers.

In all, the destroyer force accounted for seven ships sunk and seven others damaged.

To the west Mitchell medium bombers ranged across the Bismarck sea to bomb and strafe airdromes in the Admiralty islands unopposed and heavy and medium bombers unloaded 102 tons of bombs at Wewak, shipping base and troop center on the northeast coast of New Guinea, despite uncomfortably hot anti-aircraft fire.

Russians Nearing Pskov; Ships Shell Foe At Anzio

By RICHARD McMURRAY Associated Press War Editor

The Russians said they had advanced today within 15-mile artillery range of Pskov, center of six railways feeding the Baltic states, after wide advances up to ten miles in which 210 villages and hundreds of Germans fell.

Once again the Red troops of the Ukraine were on the move southwest of Nikopol, capturing several villages, clearing more of the west bank of the Dnieper river and increasing the threat to Kherson and Nikolaev on the Black sea. The Germans said 100,000 fresh Russians had been thrown into that battle and that other Soviet forces in White Russia were attempting to break through to Bobruisk on the way to Minsk.

Moscow said German counterattacks north and northwest of Luts in old Poland, 50 miles from the starting point of the German invasion from the Bug river, had been crushed after initially "driving

NEED 25 MEN AT MUSSELMAN CO.

"Twenty-five men are urgently needed at the food processing plant of the C. H. Musselman company at Biglerville to speed shipment of canned food for the U. S. Navy."

Edgar A. Crouse, manager of the Gettysburg office of the United States Employment service, said today.

"Important shipments of canned foods for the armed forces are being held up at the nearby processing plant because of a critical labor shortage," Mr. Crouse said. "This is an important emergency war job, and the men are needed at once."

NAB PAIR WHO DISARMED TWO STATE POLICE

Harrisburg, Feb. 28 (AP)—State Police Commissioner C. M. Wilhelm lauded his men today for the "dime novel" capture of two bandits in a Fulton county gun fight, a little more than two days after the pair held up two troopers and robbed them of their revolvers in a Huntingdon, Pa., rooming house.

A state-wide chase ended early yesterday when one of the bandit pair—identified by Wilhelm as Merle Mercer, 38—was shot in the thigh after trying to escape from an overtaken automobile.

The second fugitive, whom Wilhelm identified as Charles Felker, 52, surrendered eight hours later as a posse of 60 state policemen closed in on him.

"The troopers who scoured the mountains and woods in Fulton county for the gunmen deserve the highest praise I can give," Wilhelm said. "They were helped by co-operation of local people."

The gunmen late Thursday disarmed and bound state policemen Ray Blyer and Roy Bailey in a rooming house where the pair said they had left their driver licenses.

An Escaped Prisoner

A 16-year-old red-haired high school girl played an important part in the capture, which, Wilhelm said, "reads like a dime novel."

He quoted Mercer—being treated for his wound at the Everett hospital—as saying he is an escaped prisoner from Reno, Nev., who joined Felker in New York.

Felker, the commissioner added, fatally wounded a California policeman and drew a life sentence in 1915. He escaped in 1924 and was captured seven years later in New York and claimed to be out on parole, Wilhelm said. He is in the Hollidaysburg jail.

Abandon Car

The break in the case came at 2 a. m. yesterday when Troopers C. J. Shovelin and Sam C. Cronrath signalled an automobile with New Jersey plates to stop. The car sped past.

The fugitives, after a two-mile chase, abandoned their car after firing at the pursuing troopers and fled on foot.

Major Charles C. Keller, who supervised the hunt, said that as the bandits approached the home of Justice of the Peace Frank Woodall, his 16-year-old daughter, Charlotte, heard the shooting and nudged Mercer at Clark's home and all available troopers were rushed to the scene to track down Felker who, hemmed in on all sides by the police posse, walked out on a highway eight hours later and surrendered.

Planned Robberies

Keller said "this gave our men a silhouette and they opened fire" wounding Mercer. The gunmen managed to travel a mile further to the home of Harvey Clark where the wounded man was found on a sofa by Clark as he came downstairs. Felker had disappeared.

Shovelin and Cronrath captured Mercer at Clark's home and all available troopers were rushed to the scene to track down Felker who, hemmed in on all sides by the police posse, walked out on a highway eight hours later and surrendered.

Commissioner Wilhelm quoted the captured men as saying they had been at Huntingdon selling gasoline coupons and "casing a lot of places in the area where there were rationing boards with the thought of robbing them." He added that a map found on the pair showed such places as Huntingdon, Hollidaysburg, Bedford, Chambersburg and McConnellsburg checked off. In addition, he declared, coupons for several thousand gallons of gasoline were in their car.

Elderly Man Is Trampled By Horse

Edward Gulden, 70, New Chester, suffered a fracture of the right arm, contusions of the chest and possible internal injuries when a horse stepped on him near Five Hundred schoolhouse, Friday. The elderly man is a patient in the Hanover General hospital.

Mr. Gulden had gone to a farm near Five Hundred schoolhouse to assist in removing cattle sold at a public sale there Thursday. As the cattle were being taken from the farm a horse, led by a man, brushed against the animals. Mr. Gulden was knocked to the ground and the horse stepped on him. He was treated by Dr. Wilbur H. Miller, New Oxford, and was then removed to the hospital.

LARGEST U. S. CONVOY DOCKS IN ENGLAND

London, Feb. 28 (AP)—U. S. forces massing in Britain for an invasion of western Europe have been strengthened by the arrival of one of the largest contingents of American troops ever to cross the Atlantic ocean in one convoy.

The crossing was made without a single attack by enemy submarines, but heavy storms which were encountered enroute caused some discomfort among the men.

The number of troops landed from the convoy is a military secret, but all are highly trained, ready for combat and fully equipped with the latest weapons.

In addition the convoy carried many planes of various types.

Immediately upon disembarking the troops were dispersed to American bases scattered from one end of the United Kingdom to the other.

John A. Moroso, Associated Press correspondent who traveled with the convoy, said the trip was so uneventful that it was a pleasure jaunt compared to a convoy crossing he made two years ago. He recalled that on that trip escorting craft delivered 11 depth charge attacks.

"The early war tension of long watches has disappeared. There is a cockiness and eagerness among the sailors on the destroyers to come to grips with the enemy. The captain of our ship credits the Royal Navy and British air patrols and detection devices with keeping the U-boats under control in the eastern Atlantic."

Before a group of relatives and friends in Trinity Reformed church, Cashtown, Miss Lydia Alice Brenizer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Brenizer, Cashtown, became the bride of Ray Adam Biesecker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Miles A. Biesecker, Cashtown, Saturday evening at seven o'clock.

The Rev. John H. Ehrhart, pastor of both the bride and groom, performed the single ring ceremony. The church was decorated with aspidistras, ferns and other potted plants and was lighted by candles.

The bride's attendant was Miss Doris Hall, Earl Baumgardner, brother of the bride, served as best man.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a powder blue street length dress. She wore a string of pearls which was the gift of the bridegroom. Her flowers were pink roses, lilies and snapdragons. Her attendant wore a navy blue dress. Her flowers were red roses and white narcissus.

Before the ceremony Mrs. Milo Diehl, aunt of the groom, presented Mendelssohn's "On Wings of Song"; Johnson's "Love Melody," and Wagner's "Evening Star" on the piano.

Miss Hope Brenizer, sister of the bride, sang "I Love You Truly." The traditional wedding marches of Lohengrin and Mendelssohn were used. "Dreamland" was played during the service.

The bride attended Arendtsville Vocational high school. The groom is manager of the Fox Hill Fruit farm, Gettysburg R. 3, where the couple will take up their residence immediately.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents.

Father Tried In Infant's Death

Boston, Feb. 28 (AP)—Testimony that "bright, shiny wire" showed where insulation had been removed from an electric trouble cord found near the body of an electrocuted infant was offered by a physician today at the trial of Attorney John P. Noxon, Jr., on a charge of murdering his six-months-old subnormal son.

"What did you say about the wire?" inquired District Attorney Charles R. Alberti as he questioned Dr. George P. Hunt, who had been summoned to the Noxon home after the child's death and who testified Medical Examiner Dr. Albert C. England had found two bare spots on the trouble cord.

Continuing his testimony before Judge Abraham Pihanski and a jury, Dr. Hunt said that at the time he discussed the bare spots on the wire with the medical examiner, the defendant was in the room.

He quoted Noxon as saying that he "smelled something burning," upon returning from his garage with tools to repair a radio in his book room.

Earlier, Dr. Hunt had testified to seeing injuries about the infant's eyes during an examination on September 22, a few hours before the child was electrocuted.

Miss McClellan also rendered a fifteen-minute organ recital. As the bridal party approached the altar, which was lighted with white candles and decorated with baskets of mixed flowers and ferns, the organist played the bridal chorus from "Lohengrin" by Wagner. For the recessional she played Mendelssohn's "Wedding March."

Both the mother of the bride and of the groom wore black dresses with corsages of red roses.

A reception followed at the home of the bride's parents with about 75 guests present, after which the couple left on a wedding trip with their destination unannounced. Upon their return they will make their home in Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Heise are employed at the Glenn L. Martin plant, Baltimore.

23 JAP SHIPS SUNK AT TRUK NIMITZ AVERS

By CHARLES MEMURTRY

U. S. Pacific Fleet Headquarters, Pearl Harbor, Feb. 28 (AP)—Japanese losses in the American attack on the enemy base at Truk were 23 ships sunk, six probably sunk and 11 damaged, a much heavier blow to the Nipponese than at first reported.

The new figures announced by Adm. Chester W. Nimitz, commander in chief of the United States Pacific fleet, were compiled after inspection of reconnaissance photographs showing destruction in the Feb. 16-17 raid.

They added four vessels to the 19 listed as sunk in the original report issued by Nimitz Feb. 20. The additional craft were not classified. A seaplane tender on the first list of ships sent to the bottom of Truk lagoon was not on the second list.

The first report said seven vessels probably were sunk; the second set the figure at six. No damaged ships were in the original tabulation, but the photographs showed there actually were 11, one of which was described by a Navy spokesman as a very large transport.

No Jap Carriers

Nimitz' second announcement made no changes in the original tabulation of 201 enemy planes destroyed in the air and on the ground, and 50 damaged, against 17 United States planes lost and one surface ship moderately damaged.

The spokesman indicated that there were no Japanese carriers on the new list of enemy Truk losses. Carriers and battleships spotted in the lagoon in a Feb. 4 reconnaissance had moved out of the danger zone by the time the American airmen attacked the base.

New aerial hammerings of Japanese bases in the Marshall Islands and other central Pacific islands also were reported by Nimitz.

These included a 30-ton bombing

TIGHTER DRAFT OPA ACCUSES FARMER AND AUCTIONEER

Harrisburg, Feb. 28 (AP)—The Harrisburg district OPA office announced today that warrants charging sales of two farm tractors above ceiling prices have been issued against a farmer and an auctioneer as a result of a farm sale at which the OPA claimed its observe-agents were threatened.

George Kunkel, associate district enforcement attorney, said the warrants named L. E. Buckalew, a farmer, of South Anville township, Lebanon county, and Paul E. Sanger, of Myersstown, an auctioneer.

Kunkel said the warrants were obtained by the U. S. district attorney's office on information provided by the OPA concerning a farm sale on Buckalew's farm on February 10. The warrants were turned over to Deputy U. S. Marshal William Capello for service.

Threatened By Crowd

The OPA charged that one tractor with a ceiling price of $772 was auctioned off for $900 and a second with an OPA maximum price of $477 brought $605.

Kunkel said after the sale that OPA observe-agents attending it reported threatening remarks were made against them by the crowd, including "let's get a rail and ride them off the farm."

Kunkel said the enforcement agents reported that bidding on the tractors was continued above the ceiling price on a showing of hands from the crowd that they wished to do so.

Wants Judge To Disqualify Self In Lonergan Case

New York, Feb. 28 (AP)—Counsel for Wayne Lonergan moved that General Sessions Judge John J. Freschi disqualify himself, as the first degree murder case against the Canadian aviator, accused of slaying his heiress wife, was called for trial today.

Attorney Edward V. Broderick, addressing the court, said he believed he had been "unjustly attacked in this case," adding:

"I regard as an implied judicial threat the statement that your honor would deal with me after the trial for contempt of court. The court has no power to take such action."

Broderick, whose spectacular trip to Canada last week caused two adjournments of the trial, also moved that Judge Freschi dismiss the special jury panel and order a new panel to be drawn.

After conferring with Lonergan in the Tombs, city prison, for three hours yesterday, Broderick said the 26-year-old defendant was "in high spirits," confident that "if given a fair trial he will be acquitted" of a charge of slaying his pretty, heiress wife, Patricia, last Oct. 24.

SEES HUGE FOOD NEED AFTER WAR

Baltimore, Feb. 28 (AP)—The Army's quartermaster general predicted today that "for the balance of this war and some time thereafter, every pound of food which can be produced" will be needed to supply not only United Nations armies and peoples but, to some extent, occupied territories.

Major Gen. Edmund B. Gregory, the quartermaster general, told a one-day conference of some 350 military and civilian food experts in an address:

"In view of the grave food situation which now confronts the Allied nations, it becomes doubly important that not only shall there be the least possible amount of food wastage in the Army but also there must be utilization of foodstuffs in line with availability."

The conference was called by the Third Service Command for officers of Army food units in Maryland, Pennsylvania and Virginia, to plan increased conservation and more effective utilization of food.

BULLETS LACE DUTCHMEN IN FINAL GAME

Coach "Hen" Bream's Gettysburg college varsity wound up its basketball season successfully here Saturday night by walloping Lebanon Valley easily 53-36.

With Vince Parnell having one of his best nights and accounting for a total of 28 points, the Bullets took the lead at the start and were never in danger.

The Bream-men got off to a stunning 16-2 lead in the first period when Parnell poured five goals through the hoops from all angles of the court. Roberts and Martini landed single goals with Roberts and Parnell adding free tosses. The visitors' only score of the period was by Detweiler after the first minute of play.

Lead 36-15 At Half

The Bullets ran wild in the second period and rolled up 20 points on four goals by Martini, three by Roberts, a pair by Parnell and one by Barnhill. The Dutchmen showed better offensively when all managed to land one or more goals. At half time the Bream-men were out in front 36-15.

Parnell opened the second half with three goals in rapid succession. Shupper, Dutchmen forward who landed 19 tallies for the visitors, did most of the scoring for Lebanon Valley during the round. At the close of the period Gettysburg led 46-24.

Coach Bream made use of his entire reserve strength in the final period and as a result Lebanon Valley managed to outscore the Bullets in the period.

The victory gave the Bullets a record of six wins as against three defeats for the season which was highlighted by the surprising extra period victory over the high ranking Albright quintet.

Philadelphia, Feb. 28 (AP)—Ike Williams, Trenton, New Jersey, lightweight, is stuffed with vitamins and rarin' to go against Philadelphia's Ellis Phillips in the arena tonight.

And the spindly-legged negro brawler is a 2-1 favorite despite the beating he took from Bob Montgomery on his last trip to the ring. Williams, expected to weigh 135 or more, has been on a "special vitamin diet" during the last several weeks, said his manager, Connie McCarthy, who left it be known: "He'll be stronger than ever and should knock Phillips out."

Byrd And McSpaden In Final Round

New Orleans, Feb. 28 (AP)—A two-man battle between Sammy Byrd and Harold McSpaden will unfold today when they play their final 18 holes in the New Orleans $5,000 war bond golf tournament.

McSpaden, who led the field until yesterday, faltered on the third round with a one under par 71 while Byrd cashed in with a three under par 69, tallying eight birdies to McSpaden's two.

Byrd, the former Yankee outfielder, plugged away with consistent shooting and came up with a 36-33—69 that garnered him 212 for the 54 holes and put him on top by two strokes over the former pacesetter McSpaden, who scored a 37-36-73, totaling 214.

Byron Nelson shot the second best third round score of 71, which was matched by Claude Harmon. Nelson moved ahead of Chick Harbert who came up with a 75, taking sixes on the ninth and sixteenth holes, and dropping back to fourth place.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.
New York, Feb. 28 (AP)—When Paul Brown, Ohio State grid coach, goes into the Navy he will be given the privilege of naming his own successor, probably one of his assistants. . . . That's quite a change from the old Ohio system of firing the coach and everybody who was on speaking terms with him. . . . Lieut. Jim Burchard, former New York sport scribe, hopes to bring the winners of the recent Allied service boxing tournament on a tour to the United States. . . . The Dodgers insist those new shiny uniforms for night games shouldn't be called "jockey" satin—both the manufacturer and Judge Landis would object. . . . Nevertheless, Them Bums likely will get a lot of "riding" when they wear them.

This year it's the three H's who are leading the Boilermakers in basketball—Hoffman, Haag and Horn. . . . Yeh, and in some other schools it's the 4-F's who are leading in everything."

IT'S NEW HERE
Did you ever know that Battling Nelson wasn't a nickname? . . . The full name is Oscar Matthew Battling Nelson. . . . or that the National Hockey league skims about $65,000 off the playoff "take" and cuts up half of it among the first four teams according to their regular season standing and the other half on how they do in the playoffs? . . . or that Ford Frick, National league president, once was a college prof. (he looks like one) and taught journalism to Frank Frawley, the AP's Los Angeles sports expert?

OWLS' VICTORY MAY GAIN THEM TOURNEY SPOT

By TED MEIER

New York, Feb. 28 (AP)—Temple, a team given scant consideration at the start of the season, jumped into the college basketball limelight last week by bowling over Western Michigan.

The feat of the Philadelphia Owls in handing the midwesterners their first collegiate setback of the season, 55-51, shoved them into the front line of teams being considered to fill the remaining berths in post-season tournaments.

Provided the Owls follow through this week and whip their arch city rivals, the St. Joseph's, they may be invited to compete in the National invitation tourney at Madison Square Garden along with Depaul (18-3), Oklahoma Aggies (20-3), Muhlenberg (20-3), Utah (13-3), St. John's (13-3), Kentucky (14-1) and still another unnamed quintet. So far Temple has won 13 and lost seven against major competition, the last four in a row against St. John's, Washington-Jefferson, Penn State and Western Michigan.

Cadets Unbeaten
Temple's performance overshadowed somewhat the victory Army chalked up against New York University to continue the only major unbeaten quintet in the country. The Cadets hope to finish their season unbeaten in 15 starts by crushing Maryland and Navy this week and perhaps being invited to one of the post-season tourneys.

Dartmouth, 15-1, already has accepted an invitation to compete in the Eastern NCAA playoffs and Ohio State is expected to act this week. What teams will fill the remainder of the berths in this tourney still is a mystery although Arkansas is regarded as having the inside track from the southwest.

This is how the situation shapes up by sections:
East—Temple's feats outstanding with Army and Long Island close behind. Sampson Naval surprised by beating Canisius then, in turn, was upset by Colgate. Muhlenberg wound up season by whipping Villanova.

Midwest—Northwestern, eliminated from Big Ten by Illinois Friday, 50-47, came back against Purdue Saturday and knocked Boilermakers out of possible tie, 51-45. Iowa now only remaining team chance for titles deadlocked with Ohio State but has to beat Northwestern twice this week. Best wins of week: DePaul's 61-49 win over Notre Dame in overtime and Notre Dame in overtime and Notre Dame 66-42 rout of Iowa. Great Lakes drubbed Toledo for 30th victory in 33 games.

Clash For Lead
Big Six—Fireworks tonight at Ames when unbeaten Iowa State and Oklahoma clash with first place at state. Oklahoma, beaten previously by Cyclones, 41-39, must win to gain at least tie for title. If Sooners win, Kansas could knock Iowa State out of tie by winning on Friday.

Southwest—Arkansas trounced winless Texas Aggies twice to wind up conference season in championship with Rice. Each have won 11 league games and lost only one. Arkansas appears choice to represent section in NCAA tourney since Rice is losing several of its regulars before the tourney opens. Southeast—Kentucky and Georgia Tech seeded No. 1 and 2 in annual conference tourney this weekend at Louisville. Other teams are Tulane, Vanderbilt, Georgia and Louisiana State.

South—Duke won the championship of the southern conference by upsetting North Carolina in annual tourney at Raleigh. Norfolk Naval training station and Norfolk Naval Air Station battle Tuesday to settle feud.

Pacific Coast—The same old story, Washington on top in the northern division, and California in southern half.

Mack and Newsom To Talk Salary

Philadelphia, Feb. 28 (AP)—Connie Mack and Bobo Newsom have a date sometime this week to talk over a little matter of dollars and cents.

Connie obtained Bobo from the Washington Senators in a mid-winter swap for Roger Wolf, another pitcher, but the Athletics' manager hadn't heard from the big fellow since he wired soon thereafter that his draft board wanted him too.

A telephone call finally came through Saturday from Newsom's Hartsville, South Carolina home, and Bobo said he'd be up Wednesday or Thursday to talk salary—an old knee injury has put him in 4-F.

KNOWLTON RITES

Philadelphia, Feb. 28 (AP)—Bill Knowlton, former Philadelphia Athletics pitcher, who died Friday, will be buried tomorrow. The 45-year-old Philadelphia policeman had pitched for Wilkes-Barre, Williamsport, Toronto, Montreal, Jersey City, Decatur, Illinois, and Crisfield, Md.

DODDS MISSES MARK THROUGH SLOW FINISH

By JACK HAND

New York, Feb. 28 (AP)—If anybody has an extra coupon, Gil Dodds can use it in that last quarter of a mile. The bespectacled parson from Boston who quotes the "Good Book" to autograph hounds and interviewers, is the unbeaten mile marvel of the track world today as he eyes four more chances to break the world indoor record but he has final 440-yard miseries.

Dodds surpassed all indoor marks for the three-quarter mile Saturday night as he scorched the Madison Square Garden boards in 3:01 but ran out of gas and slacked off to a 67.3 second final 440 to miss his goal by nine-tenths of a second. His time of 4:08.3 clipped four-tenths off his own National AAU indoor championship standard.

Dan Ferris, secretary of the AAU, ruled last night, however, that Dodds' 3:01 for the three-quarters could not be approved as a record because only two clockers, instead of three, reported the time. Ferris also said that Michigan's Bob Ufer's supposedly new record of 1:11.3 in the 600-yard dash was invalid because he got off to a flying start and starter Nate Cartwell declined to certify that the start was official.

Hunter Next Foe

Competition from a new source will be available Saturday in the special match race at the IC-4A championships here when Elnor Ollie Hunter of the Columbia Midshipmen's school, drops down from the longer routes to try to give Dodds a battle. Ollie tried the mile yesterday, 16 hours after winning the AAU three-mile crown, and was an easy winner in 4:32.6 as the Midshipmen met Army in a dual meet.

Hunter usually has a last lap spring under his belt when the band toots the Notre Dame victory march and that may be just what is needed to pull Dodds to that record that appears within reach. The parson, who yesterday received the James E. Sullivan award as the amateur athlete who did the most to advance the cause of sportsmanship in 1943, let Bill Hulce of the New York AC set the pace for the first quarter of the AAU mile. Gil took over in the third lap and ran himself and the field right into the ground with an inspiring performance that had the crowd of 16,000 talking to themselves. His slow final 440 was apparent to all and his final time, although excellent, came as an anti-climax.

Fulton Falls
Johnny Fulton's failure in the 1,000-yard run which was won by Les Eisenhart of Columbus, Ohio, was a distinct surprise as the San Francisco lad and Joe Nowicki of Rochester had been expected to provide the competition.

Three men bettered 24 feet in the broad jump which was won by Barney Ewell, former Penn State star now in the Army and Ed Conwell of NYU equalled the world indoor mark for the 60-yard dash with a winning 6.1 second effort.

Warmerdam Grounded
Only double winner was Bob Dugger, formerly of Tufts, who captured both the 60-yard high and low hurdles.

Ensign Cornelius Warmerdam was unable to appear because his plane was grounded in Cleveland and Jack Deifel, former Minnesota U. athlete, won the pole vault at 14 feet.

The New York AC regained its team title and took the mile relay but finished third in the two-mile behind Dartmouth, sparked by Don Burnham's 1:55.4 anchor leg for a winning effort, and Michigan.

Eastern Reginal Swimming championship Saturday. Hershey scored 28; Upper Darby, 21; Coatesville, 11; Lancaster, 10; West Reading, 7; and Eddystone, 0.

Arendtsville Faces West York March 6

Gulle W. Lefever, principal of Gettysburg high school, announced today that the Class B PIAA cage tilt originally scheduled to be played on the high school floor Tuesday evening, March 7, between Arendtsville and West York, has been moved forward to next Monday evening.

The change was made in order to prevent a possible conflict of two PIAA tilts on the same evening in Gettysburg. Arrangements have been made that in the event Chambersburg wins the Southern Pennsylvania title this week, it will meet the Lancaster county champions in a Class A game on the college floor next Tuesday evening.

Extra Session To Be Campaign Opener

Harrisburg, Feb. 28 (AP)—Legislative leaders are frank in admitting any special session of the General Assembly—either before or after the April 25 primary—will be a sounding board for the important general election campaign.

Although no decision has been announced, Governor Martin just last week said "it looks as if it will be necessary to have a special session to amend our soldier vote law" but declined to give away possible dates. Republican Senate Leader Weldon B. Heyburn (R-Delaware) said "undoubtedly some of the (Legislature) members will use a special session as a sounding board" to further their own political ambitions.

He added, however, that the governor's statement that any session called will be held to several weeks "will limit the extent" of political stumping in the legislative halls.

Army Streamlines Atlantic Defenses

New York, Feb. 28 (AP)—Atlantic coast defenses of the army will be streamlined Wednesday with the establishment of two sector headquarters to supervise coastal operations from Maine to Florida, replacing the four-sector system.

Lt. Gen. George Grunert, commanding general of the eastern defense command, announced the new northeastern sector will be headed by Maj. Gen. Kenneth T. Blood whose headquarters will be at (150 Causeway street), Boston, Massachusetts.

The southeastern sector, with headquarters at Raleigh, North Carolina, will be commanded by Maj. Gen. John L. Homer. General Grunert said the northeastern sector would include New England and eastern Long Island, and the southeastern, the remainder of the eastern seaboard.

OUT FOR CONGRESS

Media, Pa., Feb. 28 (AP)—Lt. (j.g.) Vernon O'Rourke, former Swarthmore college economist, now on duty with the Navy, is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Congress—backed by both the Delaware county Democratic organization and the Democratic committee for Liberal Action. He was named as a harmony candidate.

HELP VETS TO LOCATE JOBS

Harrisburg, Feb. 28 (AP)—Governor Martin hopes Pennsylvania women will "respond whole-heartedly" during the Army's campaign to recruit thousands of WAC members for service with the air force.

Heaviest traffic carrier of American rivers is the Ohio.

Rehabilitation work has progressed tremendously, the foundation said, with many firms making case studies of jobs and of manpower to facilitate employment of physically handicapped servicemen.

A panel of medical and personnel authorities already has been formed by the foundation to supply practical "how to do it" data to industry. One member of the panel, I. Dent Jenkins, personnel manager of the Harrison Radio division of General Motors, cited a check-sheet devised by his company to show which senses and limbs are vital to good performance.

Other factors include the lifting, standing and walking involved, work station conditions and surroundings, and proximity to other employees, as well as added circumstances which may affect a partially-disabled employee at his desk. Filing cards are kept of this data to check at a glance what jobs are available that can be filled by persons with various disabilities, Jenkins said.

Gives Weekly View Of State Relief

Harrisburg, Feb. 28 (AP)—The Department of Public Assistance reported that many aged and handicapped relief recipients have been compelled to give up the jobs which took them off assistance rolls for a brief time. Relief Secretary Samuel Y. Rammage blamed illness or disablement. Many will be employed again when their physical condition permits, he said.

During the week ended February 19, there were 231,126 persons on the combined relief rolls, compared with 231,111 the previous week.

Tiny Fire Cause Of Much Confusion

Philadelphia, Feb. 28 (AP)—Thousands of theater-goers and commuters, 100 firemen and 16 pieces of fire apparatus turned out for a fire at 15th and Market streets, in the center of the downtown district, last night, paralyzing traffic for nearly an hour.

The fire burned a hole through a wooden door in a basement arway—and that's all.

Today's Talk
THE GENUINE OPTIMIST

The Optimist, so called, gets all too many knocks and kicks. That is because the one who gets them is not genuine. The genuine Optimist is not the one who is forever thinking and predicting that everything is going to come out all right—but the one who is forever doing something about it!

The genuine Optimist is the one who follows every upward trend—and takes all manner of folks along with him. He puts his heart and energies into every worthwhile enterprise, and so inspires those about him that his leadership is recognized and respected.

People who keep their chins up, and look ahead, do the least stumbling. The genuine Optimist has no room in his mind for defeatism. His thoughts are constructive ones. Quite often he is so far ahead of other people that they think him unstable and a mere dreamer, but only those who have visions, and put their hands to the plough, ever get anywhere.

The tiny flower, in the Springtime, is a silent Optimist. It knows that as it pushes its new life from its seed in the ground it will meet the warm sunshine and the drops of rain from the sky—and that will mean full fruition—its dream of completion.

Thus the Optimist reasons. If he keeps climbing, if he keeps thinking constructively, if he nourishes his heart in Faith, and if he believes in the Better Good, he knows that he cannot become a failure, no matter how hard pressed, or how difficult the way ahead.

No one who uses his eyes and who loves all the wonders and beauties in Nature can possibly become anything but a genuine Optimist. Progression, ever renewing, and even rejoicing, as in the songs of birds, and the bloom of flowers, is the voice of Nature. The grasping of "Life's Extras" is what warms our being, and lifts us to higher ground.

Right decisions are what build our Optimistic Spirit. The moment that the Prodigal Son decided to "arise and go to my Father," he became a genuine Optimist, for he knew that his Father would both forgive and give welcome—as he did.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Life's Extras."

Triplets Follow Two Sets Of Twins

Pittsburgh, Feb. 28 (AP)—James Healy is very likely muttering: "When it rains it pours!"

Already the father of two sets of twins, he paced the floor at St. Joseph's hospital yesterday until the nurse told him his wife, Rose Marie, had given birth to triplets, two girls and a boy.

The girls weighed 4 pounds, 1 ounce, and 5 pounds, 9 ounces, and the boy 6 pounds, 1 ounce.

The Healys now have 11 children.

Philomathean Anniversary: Notwithstanding the unpleasant weather, Agricultural Hall was well filled on Monday evening, on the occasion of the anniversary exercises of the Philomathean Society of Pennsylvania college.

The young men gave addresses that were characterized by originality and vigorous thought, good style and excellent elocution. The music—furnished by a select choir of amateur vocalists, Miss Alice Baugher presiding at the piano—deserves special notice, as a leading feature of the evening. We like this idea of substituting vocal for instrumental music on these occasions, and hope it will be continued.

Arrested: Detective James Rouzer, last week arrested a colored man named Smith, charged with having stolen Dr. Smith's mammoth bronze turkey several weeks ago, and had him committed. Dr. S., annoyed at the loss of the turkey, put the matter in Mr. Rouzer's hands, who worked up the case with his customary skill and persistence resulting in the detection of the thief.

WOMAN LAWYER TAKES TAX SUIT INTO U. S. COURT

Pittsburgh, Feb. 28 (AP)—Slight, dark-haired, winsome Anne X. Alpern, Pittsburgh's City Solicitor, will go before the Supreme Court in Washington Tuesday to argue a tax issue that will affect hundreds of cities in the nation—can local governments legally tax machinery leased to war plants by the federal government?

Miss Alpern—perhaps the only woman solicitor of a major city in the nation—is handling the case for the National Institute of Municipal Law Officers, representing solicitors of 386 cities. The suit, already developed into a test case, originated here.

It involves $618,000 assessed by Allegheny county against the Mesta Machine Co. as taxes on machinery in its plant. According to the institute, the machinery originally was purchased by Mesta, but the firm later was reimbursed for its cost by the government. Then, according to terms of the contract, Mesta leased the equipment at $1 a year.

Billions Affected
The government claims it is the owner of the machinery and, under the constitution, is immune from taxation. The institute asserts Mesta has title to the equipment, is making a profit on it and, therefore should be taxed.

It is estimated the government owns plants and buildings valued at several billion dollars throughout the nation, many of which would be affected by a Supreme Court decision in the Mesta case.

Miss Alpern takes the position that the machinery forms a part of the plant and, therefore, is taxable as part of the property under the Pennsylvania law; that these government plants have created new centers of population and that the plants should not receive municipal services without payment of local taxes.

FAMILY MEN TO FILL SHORTAGE IN SERVICES

Washington, Feb. 28 (AP)—The manpower shortage for the armed services which President Roosevelt has called "grave" must be made up from family men and others, a special medical commission reported to the White House today, and not by lowering physical standards.

The commission was created at the suggestion of Congress on the theory that a relaxation of induction requirements, especially for limited service, might delay drafting of fathers and others with dependents. But it reported existing standards could not be reduced "without impairing the efficiency" of the armed services and no more limited service inductions are needed.

The report will be sent to Congress tomorrow. It follows publication Saturday of a memorandum President Roosevelt sent to manpower officials saying the nation's manpower pool has been dangerously depleted "by liberal deferments. He said the deficit should be made up from those with occupational deferments, especially in the younger classes. A review of this group was ordered last night.

Won't Lower Standards
There are nearly 8,500,000 men in the groups the commission and the President urged be tapped—3,834,000 deferred for occupational reasons and 4,645,000 for dependency. Major General Lewis B. Hershey, Selective Service director, listed these figures in today's report. He also placed the total living registrants between 18 and 38 on December 1 last at 22,138,000, with 6,540,000 inducted, 2,430,000 enlisted, 3,357,000 disqualified after physical examination, 1,090,000 in process of classification, examination or induction, 152,000 deferred for other than occupation or dependency reasons, and 90,000 "unclassified and unknown."

Quote McIntire
The commission proposed some minor changes in existing physical standards, but General Hershey commented the net effect would be to increase the quality rather than the quantity of inductees.

After saying the efficiency of the combat services would be impaired by lowering the requirements it outlined, the commission, headed by the President's personal physician and surgeon general of the Navy, Vice Admiral Ross T. McIntire, made these four additional conclusions, based on reports from the Army, Navy, Selective Service and Veterans Administration:

Enough for Limited Duty
"1—The services have reached saturation for newly inducted men for limited service since the need for men in this category will be fully met by men already in service who as a result of incidents of the service are no longer fit for general service.

"2—It is evident that the urgent and increasing need of the services today is for men for general service and that this need will progressively increase until the war is successfully concluded.

"3—It is apparent that these needs can not be met by lowering the physical requirements for admission to the armed forces or by increasing the induction of men for limited service.

"4—In view of the needs of the armed services for men qualified for general service, which needs can not be fully met from the pool of men now on hand in Class I-A plus the annual increment of men coming of military age, it is apparent that the manpower required for the prosecution of the war can not be obtained except by induction of men living with their families and recourse to all other available sources."

Man Held In Fatal Shooting Sunday

Washington, Pa., Feb. 28 (AP)—William Davis, 72, was in county jail today awaiting a coroner's inquest into the slaying of Samuel H. Goodman, 50, who state police Corporal Charles Wewitt said was shot at the Davis home at Avella, 12 miles south of here.

Corporal Dewitt said an altercation arose yesterday and that Goodman was shot in the chest when he brandished an axe.

Davis' wife, Carrie, 43, was in Washington hospital with a fractured skull as a result, Dewitt reported, of being struck on the head with an axe.

Twice Convicted, Negro Will Die

Trenton, N. J., Feb. 28 (AP)—One night this week Howard E. Jefferson, 28-year-old Salem negro, will die in New Jersey's electric chair for the fatal stabbing of Mrs. Beulah Kessler, elderly Woodstown farmer.

Jefferson, the only occupant of the death house at state prison, was twice convicted of the crime. The state charged he attacked the 83-year-old woman and then murdered her July 25, 1941, during an argument at her farm where he was employed as a laborer.

Jefferson denied the attack and killing at both of his trials. His first conviction was set aside by the court of errors and appeals, which later upheld the second verdict.

Exact execution dates are not announced in advance.

Milkweed juice has long been used by Mexicans to tenderize tough steaks.

obtained except by induction of men living with their families and recourse to all other available sources."

START WORK ON SIMPLIFICATION OF TAX LAWS

Washington, Feb. 28 (AP)—The House Ways and Means committee started work in earnest today on simplification of the income tax return.

In about two weeks, when most of the 50,000,000 taxpayers will have completed the most intricate forms ever dispatched by the treasury, the committee hopes to have its "streamliner" ready for presentation to the House.

Chairman Doughton (D-NC) said the new bill may have these features:

1) Integration of the victory, normal and surtaxes into one overall levy.

Last Return For Many
2) Adjustment of withholding levies and individual tax indebtedness so that, in most cases, the amount withheld by employers will constitute the entire tax and supplementary payments and filing of returns will be made unnecessary.

3) Revisions provided in the new form will be such that tax burdens will be continued as far as possible, at their present level.

Although Doughton expressed hope that streamlining of the income tax law might end returns for most taxpayers, Chairman George (D-Ga) of the Senate Finance committee said he believed the total tax for some 30,000,000 might be collected through the withholding tax alone, while the other 20,000,000 would continue to make returns. In the latter group, said George, would be those in high income brackets, professional people and the self-employed.

Meanwhile Congress had a new tax comment from Wendell Willkie to consider. In New York the 1940 Republican presidential candidate who earlier had advocated a $16,000,000,000 tax bill reiterated his stand that "the additional income that the war has created should be taxed and taxed heavily."

He said Mr. Roosevelt's veto of the latest measure was "violent and ill-tempered" but added that the tax provisions could not be solved by "dramatic resignations and over-sentimental reconciliations." He made no other reference to the resignation of Senator Barkley (D-Ky) as Senate Majority leader and the Kentuckian's apparent reconciliation with the White House after he was unanimously reelected.

Work Resumed At Steel Mills Today

Pittsburgh, Feb. 28 (AP)—Five mills of Carnegie-Illinois Steel corporation today approached normal operation as the huge Clairton coke works, closed by a strike of several hundred workers, returned to capacity production.

Company officials said at least 90 open hearth furnaces and 20 blast furnaces were cooled down when the supply of gas and tar furnished by the coke works was cut sharply by the walkout Saturday.

The 8 a. m. and 4 p. m. shifts reported 100 per cent yesterday, the company said, after the strikers first returned slowly to work before midnight Saturday. They struck earlier in the day in protest against line promotions of some employees.

The men, members of the CIO-United Steelworkers of America, agreed to return to work pending negotiation of their grievance after ordinance officers and a federal conciliator had intervened.

Fort Worth, Texas, Feb. 28 (AP)—Lt. Bernard R. Miller, 23, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Miller, of Bethlehem, Pa., was killed in a crash of a single-engine dive bomber here yesterday. He was attached to the Army Air Forces office at the Consolidated Vultee Aircraft corporation plant.

Wool Plentiful, Restrictions Stand

Washington, Feb. 28 (AP)—This country, which feared a shortage of wool after Pearl Harbor, now wails lows in it.

There still are limitations on its use in clothing although there will be adequate clothing for all. For instance:

No two pairs of pants with a suit; no vest with a double-breasted suit; no pleats in women's dresses.

The War Production Board lays down those restrictions, giving these reasons: scarcity of manpower and materials like rayon.

More manpower is used in making two pairs of pants; needed rayon goes into vest linings.

If those limitations irk you, WPB nevertheless says there is no prospect they will be lifted.

Red Cross Worker Gets Silver Star

Washington, Feb. 28 (AP)—A 32-year-old Pennsylvania clergyman is the first Red Cross worker to be awarded the Army's Silver Star for gallantry in action in this war.

The war department cited James F. Shaw, North Apollo, Pa., former Pittsburgh pastor, for rescuing American soldiers from a bomb-blasted landing craft and caring for them while under the fire of enemy planes during the Sicily invasion.

ROBERT C. LOTT

broke even and some that lost money year after year, either because of poor soil or poor location. It would be foolish to plant new trees where the old ones did not flourish sufficiently to make money.

Acceptable Varieties

"Where peach orchards were set out 20 by 20 feet and the orchard was clean cultivated you will have the worst soil. Where peaches and apples were interplanted you will have your next worst soil. The best soil will be found in apple orchards where the trees were planted 35 to 40 feet apart and a heavy sod was maintained. You can tell the condition of the soil by the condition of the sod. Where the sod is good and thick, there you have the best soil for a new orchard.

"Adams county's needs for apple varieties have changed. Years ago the county's apple crop for the most part was exported. Then the processing plants and local markets opened up. Now you have only two outlets, the processing plants and local markets, with a possibility of the third, exports, opening after the war. The fruit growers should plant those apples, Yorks, Golden Delicious and Stayman which are most acceptable for the markets.

Cites Experiences

M. E. Knouse, speaking on the experiments at his farms in replacing old trees, pointed out that the hardest part of the job is "to have the nerve to cut out the old trees when we should."

On the Tyson farm the old trees were cut out diagonally and replanted on 25 by 40 foot blocks. Mr. Knouse said they had discovered that tree rows running east and west have developed better than trees in rows running north and south. At the Edgewood farm every other row was cut out and replanted and results so far seem excellent, he said.

Discuss Prices

Mr. Ruef urged the fruit growers not to plant additional acreage in peach, pointing out that the future of peach in Adams county does not seem too hopeful. "Several million new trees are about to come in the market," he said, "they would have been on the market last year if there had not been a freeze-out in the south. With all those trees coming in there is every possibility of a glut on the market a month before Adams county's peaches reach the harvest stage. If such a glut occurs there is little hope that Adams county's crop would receive a very high price."

Prices for the coming year were discussed by the fruit growers with Mr. Knouse following receipt of a report on the fruit outlook on a nationwide scale made E. A. Meyer, of the War Food Administration. Consensus seemed to be that prices would be higher than in 1942 and not so high as in 1943.

The nation can handle all the fruit produced by the growers, they were assured. The apple crop was not big enough last year to meet the Army and Navy commitments and a 135,000,000-bushel apple crop could be handled easily between the demands of the armed forces and the civilian needs.

Specialists Speak

A resolution of regret in the death of the late C. H. Musselman, "for his great contribution to the development of the fruit industry in Adams county" was passed. The Rev. A. W. Geigley was chairman of the resolutions committee, with Oliver J. Heacock and William Barber as members.

J. O. Pepper, extension entomologist, and R. S. Kirby, extension plant pathologist, from State College, outlined the spray program recommended for the coming year. During the course of their talk they urged the growers to use a misty spray rather than a "driving spray," pointing out that a "driving spray" frequently does more damage to the buds than the insect pests would have.

They asserted that the oriental fruit moth was expected to cause less damage this coming year than previously because of the great cleanup of fruit out of the orchards. They also urged growers to "get your orders in immediately for peach sprays and get them home as soon as possible. Because of the shortage of spray materials, the man who waits too long will not get any spray materials."

Donald Garretson, Harvey Rafenberger and Luther Baltzley formed the nominating committee for the meeting which was attended by about 200 fruit growers.

YOUR VICTORY GARDEN

By Robert Geiger
AP Features Writer

Part 1

The fate of nations easily could hinge, in 1944, upon the American Victory Gardener.

The United States Department of Agriculture is depending upon the backyard gardeners to produce approximately one-half of all the fresh vegetables the nation will need. The commercial truck gardens have reached capacity, says the department's experts. It's up to the Victory Gardener to fill the breach.

If they fall down upon the job there will be less food for American boys in foreign lands and the soldiers of the United Nations who receive lend-lease shipments from this country.

Secretary of Agriculture Wickard has asked for 22,000,000 American Victory Gardens this summer. He's talking to the amateur gardener, the "little man with the hoe," who last year raised more than 8,000,000 tons of food, 40 per cent of the fresh vegetable supply, in his backyard.

This year the department of agriculture hopes there will be 2,000,000 more gardens than in 1943.

For a family of four, here's all it takes to supply the table with most of its fresh vegetables and almost enough canned or stored ones for an entire year:

A sunny, fertile plot of land 30 by 50 feet.

About $5 worth of seeds.

About $5 worth of tools.

About $5 worth of plowing and fertilizer.

A water supply to supplement rainfall if in a arid climate.

An average of about 15 minutes of pleasant work each day of the summer, after the garden is planted.

How to make all of these fit together into a garden plan that will bring you a harvest of worth-while dividends will be told in the series of articles to follow.

(Save these articles in notebook form and create a garden book of your own.)

STATE GUARD TO BE ISSUED 'O.D.'S

Harrisburg, Feb. 28 (AP)—Regular Army uniforms are on order for the Pennsylvania State Guard—now wearing blue-gray outfits.

"We have placed requisitions with the federal government for OD's—olive drabs—for the entire personnel," Adjutant General Robert M. Vail said today.

"We already have Army rifles for the five regiments and official Army helmets."

The uniforms were offered by the federal government without cost, General Vail said.

To Help Morale

The old uniforms, used by the guard since its formation at the outbreak of the war, will be discarded.

"I think the new uniforms will not only help the men's morale but will give the guard a more military appearance," the adjutant general commented.

Plans for the entire state guard to attend the summer encampment in one body are under consideration.

Last summer—before the guard was expanded from three to five regiments—the encampment at Indiantown Gap was three weeks long with each regiment attending one week.

RADIO PROGRAMS

New York, Feb. 28 (AP)—The networks, which up to recent weeks had been only slightly active in frequency modulation broadcasting, now have increased operations considerably. While both NBC and CBS have operated stations in New York for some time, they did so primarily on an experimental basis. CBS also has a station in Chicago.

They not only are stepping up these transmissions, but have given evidence of an intention to expand as soon as equipment is available, probably not until after the war. This, of course, is provided applications for construction permits are granted by the Federal Communications Commission.

At present NBC has on file applications for other FM stations at Washington, Denver, San Francisco, Chicago and Cleveland. CBS is seeking other stations at Boston, St. Louis and Hollywood.

Tomorrow the networks are going all-day to help give a boost to the Red Cross war fund campaign which will continue through March. From early morning until close of the schedule at night there will be special announcements and programs, with a number of broadcasts presenting features of their own.

SLAVE LABOR IN GERMANY WAITS DAY OF VICTORY

By DE WITT MACKENZIE
(Associated Press War Analyst)
Disclosure that Hitler is sitting on a keg of human dynamite consisting of 12,000,000 slaves, brought to the Reich from occupied countries, raises an altogether grim picture of the situation which would exist if these unfortunates should try to exact retribution from the German people when the Fushner's military machine cracks—as crack it will in due course.

Unconditional surrender will bring the Hitlerites respite from further war. But what will it bring them from the millions who have suffered under the lash and have seen other millions of their colleagues die from privation? It's obvious that should these folk rise up for revenge, the best efforts of the Allies wouldn't be able to restrain them before terrible events had taken place.

40 Per Cent Foreign Labor
We have known, of course, that Hitler was loading many of his burdens onto the scarred backs of slave labor, both male and female. However, we've had no such details as are now given us by Taylor Henry, Associated Press correspondent, who is in Portugal awaiting repatriation after thirteen months internment by the Germans.

Forty per cent of Hitler's labor is foreign, and Russians and Poles head the list with 2,500,000 and 1,000,000 respectively. He must get uneasy moments when he recalls the massacres and other atrocities he has perpetrated in Russia and Poland. He must get a chill when he remembers that out of the first 4,000,000 Russians captured by the Germans, only 1,500,000 survived the privations of his prison camps.

Await Vengeance
We know something of what the Nazi anti-Christ is thinking from a statement carried by the British Broadcasting Corporation, which reports that all German nationals in Czechoslovakia have been issued guns and ammunition for self defense. The reason is that open re-istance among the Czechoslovakians is growing and, says the BBC, the German authorities fully realize what will happen to them when the war reaches the frontiers of the little Republic.

The civilians of many countries are living for the day when they can revenge themselves against the Nazi troops of occupation. But Hitler's greatest problem along this line must have to do with the Reich, where revenge may be taken not only against the soldiery but upon civilians. No wonder his murderous Gestapo Chief, Himmler, has been given sweeping powers and has under his command a picked military force of 600,000.

"WHAT IS LEFT"
Washington, Feb. 28 (AP)—First call on all fuel oil supplies will go to the Army, Navy, Maritime Commission, Coast Guard, Foreign Economic Administration and War Shipping Administration under a new ruling by the Petroleum Administration for War. Civilians will get what is left. Principal effect of the order, PAW said, will be to assure a steady supply for the war agencies at east coast ports.

TRAP CONVICTS IN WILD CHASE; GIRL RELEASED

Greenwood, Miss., Feb. 28 (AP)—Two of three young San Quentin convicts, who held a 16-year-old girl a prisoner for 12 hours in a jail break and wild police chase through west-central Mississippi, were trapped and recaptured here last night after a gun battle with Greenwood police.

Lawrence Motari, 21, was captured behind a filling station in the vicinity of a compress - warehouse, while Roy Drake, 20, was taken from the compress roof when police ordered "come down or roll down."

Girl Unharmed
Ralph Ward, 23, the other member of the trio who escaped the Hinds County Jail Saturday, made his way through the cordon of officers and forced Phillip Lee, 28, of Greenwood, to drive him in the direction of Tchula, 30 miles away. Ward took the car from Lee and released him.

Arlene McKnight, 16, was taken by the bandits from her home near Cleveland, Miss., after the escaped youths shot her father, Joe McKnight, in the leg. He was taken to the Cleveland hospital. The girl's mother was also admitted to the hospital suffering from shock.

The girl was released unharmed at a plantation near Belzoni, Miss.

Escaped San Quentin
Wooster Henry, owner of the plantation, said the men spent about ten hours yesterday at his place, holding the girl, him, his wife, a negro yardboy and a negro cook at bay.

He said the men forced the cook to fix them a dinner and said it was "the best we've had in years." They tied up Henry, his wife, the servants and the girl, and gave the girl some money "to get home on."

The men were being held in the Hinds county jail awaiting trial on charges of robbing the Robert E. Lee hotel in Jackson. They escaped from the San Quentin, Calif., state prison last Dec. 26 by scaling a wall. They were serving a sentence in the holdup of a Beverly Hills hotel.

African slaves first were imported into Haiti in 1510.

WAR BONDS in action

We can't win the war without the navy; our soldier can't win unless our ships deliver; merchant ships can't deliver unless the home front provides. One important convoy job is flashing signals as this youth is doing in the Battle of the Atlantic.

Your equally important job is to continue buying War Bonds until victory.
